

BRIGADIER GENERAL BRAD CARTER

Assistant Adjutant General, Oklahoma National Guard

Brigadier General Brad Carter is the Assistant Adjutant General – Army, Oklahoma National Guard. He advises and assists The Adjutant General on the preparation of Oklahoma Army National Guard units for Homeland Defense and mobilization. He has oversight of training, administration, logistics and personnel actions. He directs the immediate staff and provides guidance to the staff and subordinate commanders. General Carter also facilitates command staff decisions pertaining to force development, planning, strength maintenance and task force operations. He advises The Adjutant General concerning any issue or matter that affects the Oklahoma Army National Guard, its citizen Soldiers and their families.

General Carter commissioned in 1993 through the Oklahoma Military Department Officer Candidate School, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. In previous assignments, he has served as Garrison Commander, Camp Gruber Training Center; Commander, 189th Regiment (RTI); and Army Chief of Staff, Joint Force Headquarters. General Carter deployed to Iraq in 2008 as Commander of the 1120th Ordnance Company. Prior to receiving his commission, General Carter served for 5 years as an Enlisted Soldier in the Oklahoma Army National Guard.
